TERMS OF SALE

All coins and bills guaranteed genuine.

New bidders or customers sending in bids for the first time must positively give first class reference, bank reference preferably, or else send a deposit of at least 25% of the total amount of bids. Otherwise, their bids will not be accepted; application of such deposit will be made upon successful bids; the seller reserves the right to demand payment upon successful bids before delivery in his sole discretion. To those known to me who have established credit, a reference or deposit is not necessary and purchases will be sent out promptly after the sale. In appreciation of this courtesy the purchaser remits promptly.

Collectors who make unlimited bids will get the lots at 5% above the highest actual bid entered.

The terms are prompt cash settlement after sale, and no time given. Collectors who are not certain that they can pay promptly are asked not to bid. The coins in the sale are the property of my clients, and I must make prompt settlement for them.

Remit by money order, draft, check, or in any way most convenient. Stamps accepted for accounts that are below one dollar only.

Coins will be bought below your bids where other offers permit, as this is competitive bidding, executed in good faith.

The usual charge of 5% will be made for executing your bids, and for packing and sending out material. No charge made on anything not actually purchased. Postage and express is paid by the purchaser.

Receipted bills are not sent out after your remittance as this is unnecessary. Your check, draft or money order itself is a receipt. However, if a 3-cent stamp is enclosed we will send receipt.

Be certain that you bid on the lot you wish to buy. We will correct errors and adjust claims, but you should not expect us to pay for your mistakes. Be careful in making your bids. Be sure that you bid on the lot you wish to buy, and at so much per piece.

Bids must reach me by the morning of the sale. Mail them in time so as to avoid disappointment. At each sale some bids arrive too late to be executed.

All bids are entered as received and lots distributed to the highest bidder without reserve. When two or more bids are the same, and there are no higher bids, the first received gets the lot. When two or more unlimited bids on a certain lot are sent, the first one received gets the lot at a 5% advance over the highest actual bid.

Between the seller and buyer, my position in describing the condition of coins and bills has been neutral. My classifications are generally considered to be conservative, by the collecting public.

It is easy to bid by mail. If you do not know how much to bid on any items, write me giving numbers in catalog and I shall be glad to inform you as to values. It is useless and a waste of time to make low bids that have no chance of success. I sincerely hope that each collector acquires some nice lots from this sale that give him a real thrill and joy of satisfaction.

Please bid by the piece unless stated to bid for the lot. Thus, if there are 12 pieces in a lot and you wish to pay $6 for the lot, then bid 50c. At each sale someone bids by the lot. Don't do this—

There will be a priced catalogue of this sale. Send one dollar cash in advance with order for a price list.

Note—We take special pride and pleasure in offering to the coin collecting public in this country the finest classic Ancient Greek and Roman coins that we have come across for many years. All are genuine works of art, and guaranteed. Collectors will do well to take this opportunity to secure at least a few specimens. All of these gems lay for years in the cabinet of one of the leading collectors of Europe, who recently died in Germany. All have, therefore, been off the market for years.

A TRIP ABROAD

Our course was northeasterly after passing Cape Race, and north of Scotland to Bergen, Norway. In mid-ocean we met and passed the ill-fated Hindenburg, poised in the air like a big cigar. A school of leaping porpoises attracts our attention. After eight days, sea gulls become numerous, and we know we are nearing land. The pilot-ship from Bergen makes our contact, and we dock about 10:00 in the evening, in broad daylight. Customs inspectors hurriedly look through our luggage. Bergen is an important seaport of 100,-000. It is noted for its fishing and shipbuilding industries. The populace turns out when an ocean liner comes into port. Hotels are soon overflowing. Almost as soon as we landed, it began to rain. This western Norway gets 76 inches of rainfall a year. So, of course, some of that must fall when anything happens. We secured splendid reservations at a leading hotel, and then set out to see the town, and celebrate our landing. After we had done the town, feeling that it must be nearing bed-time, I looked at my watch and it was 2:30 a. m. "Why," thought I, "I was waiting for it to get dark, but here we are in a land of no darkness in June and July. But it is bedtime."

Presently we met four ladies from the ship, who were unable to get hotel accommodations, so, of course, we acted the part of gallant knights and decided to sleep in the streets. Then came an officer from the ship who recognized us, and gave us permit to return to the ship which lay in harbor. There we were assigned to a stateroom, with the notice that it would sail to Oslo at 5:00 a. m. But they would call us in time. Well, at 4:55 I chanced to get awake, and in the next five minutes things happened so swiftly that my partner and I walked the gang-plank in time for the boat to sail at five. It was raining, but we set out to further explore the city in taxi-cabs, or in the native tongue "beels" (the ending or last syllable of automobiles). Autos in Norway are mostly American makes, the cheaper kinds predominating. The cost of them there is nearly double of what it is in this country, so they are not as numerous. We visited the open air fish markets, and while they are interesting and useful, we feel glad they are open-air. The museum of natural history is very high-class and entirely worthwhile a long visit. The silver shops are unusually interesting, as are many of the other shops and stores. We travel up a funicular railway to heights beautifully overlooking the city. We are invited to a fine country estate, and delightfully and hospitably entertained for the evening and night. Tomorrow we will start on a trip through the beautiful and unexcelled scenic fiords along western Norway.

For 49 years its monthly visits have been a source of inspiration and a stimulus to all grades of collectors from the beginner to the advanced student.
